Addl. Government Pleader appearing for respondent would submit that, the respondent has initiated disciplinary proceedings against one Mrs.Gracy Selvarani under Rule 3(b) Tamil Nadu Police Subordinate Service (Discipline and Appeal) Rules and the enquiry is pending.

4.Mr.M.Madhu Prakash, learned counsel appearing for petitioner would submit that the departmental proceedings has been initiated against one person viz., Gracy Selvarani and no action was taken against other persons.

5.Heard and considered rival submissions of learned counsel appearing for both sides and perused the records carefully.

6.This Writ Petition has been filed seeking a direction directing the respondent to take action against three persons viz., Mrs.Gracy Selvarani, Mr.Manohar and Mr.Balamurugan, but they were not made as party respondents in this Writ Petition. Without impleading them as party respondents, the petitioner cannot seek any relief against them. Even though several opportunities were given to her, she has not come forward to implead them as party respondents. Hence, on the ground of non-joinder of necessary parties, this Writ Petition is liable to be dismissed. Accordingly, this Writ Petition stands dismissed. No costs.
