The petitioner seeks police protection.

2.It appears that there is some property dispute involving the local people. The petitioner is not having any enforceable order or decree from the jurisdictional civil Court. Therefore, the question of granting police protection does not arise. If the acts of the privates respondents amount to commission of any cognizable offence, then the third respondent is bound to take action as per law.

3.With this observation, this criminal original petition is disposed of.
