2. When the matter was taken up for hearing, the learned Government Pleader appearing for the respondents 1 to 4, on instructions, submitted that the encroachment in the subject land, as projected by the petitioner, has been removed. To that effect, he has also produced a copy of the survey report dated nil, before this Court.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner stoutly refuted the above submission of the learned Government Pleader.

4. Recording the above submission of the learned Government Pleader and granting liberty to the petitioner to approach the authority concerned, if his grievance still exists, the writ petition is disposed of. No costs. Consequently, connected miscellaneous petitions are closed.
