COMMON ORDER

Mr.Veerakathiravan, learned Additional Advocate General assisted by Mr.B.Jameel Arasu, learned Standing counsel appearing for the respondents 2 to 4 submits that the petitioners have not been issued with licence so far.

2.Elaborate argument was advanced by the learned counsel for the petitioners. It is submitted that the petitioners were the highest bidders, but the official respondents have not issued Bar licence to the petitioners, pursuant to the tender floated by the respondent TASMAL. There is however no merits in these writ petitions.

3.A batch of writ petitions in W.P.Nos.27352 of 2021 and etc batch., have been dismissed by this Court vide order dated 31.01.2022, wherein several writ petitions filed by several persons, challenging the notification dated 14.12.2021. In the aforesaid order, the respondent TASMAL was restrained from giving licence to any person and was also directed to take steps to close down the Bars, wherever licences have been issued to a section of the bidders.

4.Considering the above stand taken by the learned Additional Advocate General and in the light of the order passed in the batch of writ petitions in W.P.Nos.27352 of 2021 and etc batch., dated 31.01.2022, dismissing the challenge to the notification dated 14.12.2021, I am inclined to dismiss these writ petitions. Accordingly, it stands dismissed. No costs. Consequently, all the connected miscellaneous petitions are closed.
