ORDER

The present writ petition has been filed challenging, granting of patta in respect of a particular survey number by the fourth respondent in favour of private respondents, namely, seventh and eighth respondents.

2. According to the petitioner Temple, the property is a Katalai property and hence, it is a specific endowment coming under the complete administration of the petitioner Temple. The patta was erroneously granted by the fourth respondent in favour of the seventh and eighth respondents. However, the learned Counsel appearing for the petitioner points out that the order impugned in the writ petition has already been challenged before the District Revenue Officer, Virudhunagar and the same is pending.

3. In view of the above said facts, all the contentions raised in the present writ petition can be raised before the District Revenue Officer, Virudhunagar. With this liberty, the writ petition stands closed. Registry is directed to mark a copy to the District Revenue Officer, Virudhunagar.

W.P(MD)No.9873 of 2013
