O R D E R

This writ petition has been filed by the petitioner for a direction to the respondents to protect the petitioner's husband's life, now confined at Trichy Central Prison from fake encounter or any other way of extra judicial killing.

2. From the affidavit, it is seen that the police officials searched the petitioner's husband in her house, therefore, she presumed that there is a possibility of encountering him, whereas, the learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondent would submit that the petitioner's husband is facing 19 cases including a case under Section 302 of IPC and SC & ST Act.

3. Now, the petitioner is under the apprehension that there is a threat, which is unnecessary, as the petitioner's husband has already facing prosecution and as such, a blank direction cannot be granted to protect his life as sought for by the writ petitioner. Such directions without any substance, is impermissible.

4. Accordingly, the writ petition stands dismissed. No costs.
