COMMON ORDER

These writ petitions have become infructuous as the time for conducting Vazhinadai Ilagal Mandagapadi Ubayam for the year 2021 and 2022 has already expired. There is a rival dispute between the petitioner and the petitioner's paternal uncle, namely, second respondent herein. It appears that the issue was also agitated in O.S.No.2258 of 1990, which was partly allowed by the District Munsif Court, Trichy on 11.06.2002. It appears that the appeal filed before the Appellate Court was also withdrawn later. There is a private dispute between the petitioner and the second respondent herein, who are members of the same family. It is for them to arrive at a consensus and report the same before the authorities under Hindu Religious and Charitable Endowments Act, for conduct the Vazhinadai Ilagal Mandagapadi Ubayam

2. Considering the same, I am inclined to dismiss the writ petition by giving liberty to the petitioner and the second respondent to approach the Joint Commissioner under Section 63 e of the Hindu Religious and Charitable Endowments Act, 1959 to establish their customary right. If such appeal filed before the Commissioner, the Commissioner shall consider and pass appropriate orders within a period of six months from the date of receipt of copy of this order.

3. The writ petitions stand dismissed with the above observations. No costs.
