This petition is filed to condone the delay of 240 days in filing the Review Application Sr. No.10653 of 2022.

2. In the affidavit filed in support of the petition, it is stated that the petitioner, during June 2019, fell down and sustained injuries. It was therefore stated that the petitioner was unable to contact his counsel immediately after the copy was obtained from this Court.

3. It is seen from the papers that the review application was filed on 31.03.2022. It is only after excluding the time during which there was extension of time for limitation by orders of Court, the delay is calculated at 240 days. It is seen that the reason for the delay after the disposal of Civil Revision Petition by this Court, is not acceptable and the delay is not properly explained.
Since there is no explanation for the delay and the details given in the affidavit filed in support of the petition are not supported by any documents, this Court is not inclined to entertain this petition.

4. Hence, the Civil Miscellaneous Petition is dismissed.
Consequently, connected Review Application is rejected at Sr. stage itself.
