ORDER

The relief sought for in the present writ petition is to direct the first respondent to act upon the recommendations of the Internal complaints committee, finalise the same and pass appropriate orders.

2. The learned counsel for the petitioner made a submission that a complaint was given against the petitioner regarding sexual harassment in work place and an internal complaints committee was constituted and the charges against the writ petitioner are held not proved. However, no further action has been taken by the respondents in this regard.

3. This Court is of the considered opinion that in respect of other grievance, the petitioner has to approach the competent authority for redressal. If at all the orders of suspension is to be reviewed or further actions are to be taken regarding the service conditions, the petitioner has to submit appropriate application and in the event of submitting any such representation, the authorities have to consider the same on merits and in accordance with law.

4. With this observation, the writ petition stands disposed of. No costs.
