H.C.P.(MD)No.705 of 2022

PRAYER: Petition filed under Article 226 of the Constitution of India to issue a writ of Habeas Corpus to call for the entire records connected with the detention order in Cr.M.P.No.12/2022, (Sexual Offender) dated 14.04.2022 on the file of the second respondent and quash the same as illegal and direct the respondents to produce the body or person of the petitioner's son namely, Junaith Ahamed, son of Syed Mohammad Bhuharikani, aged about 27 years, now confined at Madurai Central Prison before this Court and set him at liberty forthwith.

For Petitioner : Mr.S.M.A.Jinnah

For Respondents : Mr.A.Thiruvadi Kumar
Additional Public Prosecutor

ORDER

[Order of the Court was made by N.ANAND VENKATESH, J.]

The petitioner is the mother of the detenu viz., Junaith Ahamed, son of Syed Mohammad Bhuharikani, aged about 27 years. The detenu has been detained by the second respondent by his order in Cr.M.P.No.12/2022, dated 14.04.2022, holding him to be a "Sexual Offender", as contemplated under Section 2(ggg) of Tamil Nadu Act 14 of 1982. The said order is under challenge in this Habeas Corpus Petition.

2. We have heard the learned counsel appearing for the petitioner and the learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondents. We have also perused the records produced by the Detaining Authority.

3. Though several grounds have been raised in the Habeas Corpus Petition, the learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would mainly focus his argument on the ground that there is gross violation of procedural safeguards, which would vitiate the detention. The learned counsel, by placing authorities, submitted that the representation made by the petitioner was not considered on time and there was an inordinate and unexplained delay.

4. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor strongly opposed the Habeas Corpus Petition by filing his counter. He would submit that though there was delay in considering the representation, on that score alone, the impugned detention order cannot be quashed. According to the learned Additional Public Prosecutor, no prejudice has been caused to the detenu and thus, there is no violation of the fundamental rights guaranteed under Articles 21 and 22 of the Constitution of India.

5. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor, on instructions, submitted that the investigation was completed and final report was filed before the Special Court for SC and ST Act cases, Srivilliputhur, Virudhunagar District in Spl.S.C.No.9 of 2022 and the victim girl has been examined as L.W.1 and she was also cross examined by A2 and A3. The case is now posted for examination of other witnesses on 22.11.2022.

6. The Detention Order in question was passed on 14.04.2022. The petitioner made a representation dated 30.04.2022. Thereafter, remarks were called for by the Government from the Detaining Authority on 20.05.2022. The remarks were duly received on Nil. Thereafter, the Government considered the matter and passed the order rejecting the petitioner's representation on 06.06.2022.

7. It is the contention of the petitioner that there was a delay of 10 days in submitting the remarks by the Detaining Authority, of which 4 days were Government holidays and hence there was an inordinate delay of 6 days in submitting the remarks. It is the further contention of the petitioner that the remarks were received on -Nil- and there was a delay of 4 days, in considering the representation by the Hon'ble Minister for Electricity, Prohibition and Excise Department after the Deputy Secretary dealt with it, of which, 2 days were a Government Holiday and hence, there was inordinate delay of 2 days in considering the representation.

8. In Rekha vs. State of Tamil Nadu (2011 (5) SCC 244), the Honourable Supreme Court has held that the procedural safeguards are required to be zealously watched and enforced by the Courts of law and their rigour cannot be allowed to be diluted on the basis of the nature of the alleged activities undertaken by the detenu.

9. In Sumaiya vs. The Secretary to Government (2007 (2)

MWN (Cr.) 145), a Division Bench of this Court has held that the unexplained delay of three days in disposal of the representation made on behalf of the detenu would be sufficient to set aside the order of detention.

10. In Tara Chand vs. State of Rajasthan and others, reported in 1980 (2) SCC 321, the Honourable Supreme Court has held that any inordinate and unexplained delay on the part of the Government in considering the representation renders the very detention illegal.

11. In the subject case, admittedly, there is an inordinate and unexplained delay of 6 days in submitting the remarks by the Detaining Authority and unexplained delay of 2 days in considering the representation by the Hon'ble Minister for Electricity, Prohibition and Excise Department. The impugned detention order is, therefore, liable to be quashed.

12. In the result, the Habeas Corpus Petition is allowed and the order of detention in Cr.M.P.No.12/2022, dated 14.04.2022 passed by the second respondent is set aside. The detenu, viz., Junaith Ahamed, son of Syed Mohammad Bhuharikani, aged about 27 years, is directed to be released forthwith unless his detention is required in connection with any other case.
