PRAYER: Petition filed under Article 226 of the Constitution of India to issue a Writ of Habeas Corpus, calling for the entire records connected with the detention order passed in P.D.No.17/2022 dated 31.03.2022 on the file of the 2nd respondent herein and quash the same and direct the respondents to produce the detenu or body of the detenu namely the Petitioner's son i.e.,Vinoth, aged about 31 years, S/o.Sundaralingam, now detained at the Central Prison, Palayamkottai, before this Court and set him at liberty forthwith.

HCP(MD)No.729 of 2022

For Petitioner : Mr.N.Pragalathan

For Respondents : Mr.A.Thiruvadi Kumar

Additional Public Prosecutor

ORDER

J. NISHA BANU,J.

N. ANAND VENKATESH,J.

The petitioner is the mother of the detenu viz., Vinoth, aged about 31 years, S/o.Sundaralingam. The detenu has been detained by the second respondent by his order in P.D.No.17/2022 dated 31.03.2022 holding him to be a "Sexual Offender", as contemplated under Section 2(ggg) of Tamil Nadu Act 14 of 1982. The said order is under challenge in this Habeas Corpus Petition.

2.We have heard the learned counsel appearing for the petitioner and the learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondents. We have also perused the records produced by the Detaining Authority.

3.Though several grounds have been raised in the Habeas Corpus Petition, the learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would mainly focus his argument on the ground that there is gross violation of procedural safeguards, which would vitiate the detention. The learned counsel, by placing authorities, submitted that the representation made by the petitioner was not considered on time and there was an inordinate and unexplained delay.

4.The learned Additional Public Prosecutor strongly opposed the Habeas Corpus Petition by filing his counter. He would submit that though there was delay in considering the representation, on that score alone, the impugned detention order cannot be quashed. According to the learned Additional Public Prosecutor, no prejudice has been caused to the detenu and thus, there is no violation of the fundamental rights guaranteed under Articles 21 and 22 of the Constitution of India.

5.The learned Additional Public Prosecutor, on instructions, submitted that the investigation was completed and a final report was filed and it was taken on file by the Special Court for POCSO Act cases, Nagercoil, in Spl.S.C.No.52 of 2022. It was further submitted that the case is now at the stage of framing of charges.

6.The Detention Order in question was passed on 31.03.2022. The petitioner made a representation dated 06.05.2022. The representation was received on 10.05.2022. The file was submitted on 25.05.2022. Thereafter, the Government considered the matter and passed the order rejecting the petitioner's representation on 30.05.2022.

7.It is the contention of the petitioner that there was a total delay of 18 days in considering the representation by the Hon'ble Minister for Electricity, Prohibition and Excise Department after the Deputy Secretary dealt with it, of which, 6 days were Government Holidays and hence, there was inordinate delay of 12 days in considering the representation.

8.In Rekha vs. State of Tamil Nadu (2011 (5) SCC 244), the Honourable Supreme Court has held that the procedural safeguards are required to be zealously watched and enforced by the Courts of law and their rigour cannot be allowed to be diluted on the basis of the nature of the alleged activities undertaken by the detenu.

9.In Sumaiya vs. The Secretary to Government (2007 (2) MWN (Cr.) 145), a Division Bench of this Court has held that the unexplained delay of three days in disposal of the representation made on behalf of the detenu would be sufficient to set aside the order of detention.

10.In Tara Chand vs. State of Rajasthan and others, reported in 1980 (2) SCC 321, the Honourable Supreme Court has held that any inordinate and unexplained delay on the part of the Government in considering the representation renders the very detention illegal.

11.In the subject case, admittedly, there is an inordinate and unexplained delay of 12 days in considering the representation by the

Hon'ble Minister for Electricity, Prohibition and Excise Department. The impugned detention order is, therefore, liable to be quashed.

12.In the result, the Habeas Corpus Petition is allowed and the order of detention in P.D.No.17/2022 dated 31.03.2022 passed by the second respondent is set aside. The detenu, viz., Vinoth, aged about 31 years, S/o.Sundaralingam, is directed to be released forthwith unless his detention is required in connection with any other case.
