2.The method of filing this Writ Petition itself would indicate that what could not be achieved in Civil Court, the petitioner tries to achieve before the Writ Court. The main grievance of the petitioner appears to be with regard to the sale deed executed by his mother and others in favour of 7th respondent dated 04.01.2017. The same cannot be decided here. Though he claims to be the possession of the property, the same has to be proved only before the trial Court. If the petitioner is advised, he is at liberty to approach the trial Court to seek permanent injunction by establishing his possession.

3.In view of the above, I do not find any merit in this Writ Petition. Accordingly, this Writ Petition stands dismissed. No costs.
