COMMON ORDER

The order under Section 45-A of the Employees' State Insurance Act, 1948, (hereinafter referred to as “the ESI Act” for brevity) and the consequential order under Section 45-C to 45-I of the ESI Act, are put under challenge in the present writ petitions.

2.The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that in the proceedings, prior to passing of the final order under Section 45-A of the ESI Act, they were set exparte and that they were not aware of the final order passed under Section 45-A of the ESI Act dated 25.02.2019, until recently. With this submission, the learned counsel submitted that an opportunity may be given to them to challenge the order before the concerned appellate authority, by extending the time limit.

WP(MD)Nos.10205 & 10206 of 2022

3.Incidentally, after the order under Section 45-A of the ESI Act was passed, the third respondent herein had issued a consequential order dated 09.05.2022 under Section 45-C to 45-I of the ESI Act for recovery of the ESI dues.

4.Apparently, the original order under Section 45-A of the ESI Act is an exparte order. This Court had also taken into account the intervening pandemic period, owing to the Covid-19 virus and therefore, deems it fit to give an opportunity to the petitioner to file an appeal under Section 45-AA of the ESI Act, by keeping the consequential recovery order in abeyance.

5. In light of the submissions made by the learned counsel appearing for the petitioner and the observations made by this Court, the petitioner is granted liberty to file an appeal under Section 45-AA of the ESI Act, before the appellate authority, within a period of thirty (30) days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order, after depositing 25% of the amount determined in the order passed under Section 45-A of the ESI Act, dated 07.03.2019.

6. The appellate authority shall take up the petitioner's appeal on file, provided the same is presented within thirty (30) days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order, together with deposit of 25% of the amount determined in the order passed under Section 45-A of the ESI Act and dispose of the same, on merits and in accordance with law. Till such time the appeal is taken up on file, the respondents shall not take any coercive action, in consequence to the order dated 09.05.2022 under Section 45-C to 45-I of the ESI Act. This Writ Petitions stands disposed of. There shall be no order as to costs. Consequently, connected Miscellaneous Petitions are closed.
