ORDER

The order impugned in the present Writ Petition enumerates that the writ petitioner was appointed on contract basis. The petitioner in his affidavit has also stated that he was appointed as contract staff. Based on the agreement, the period of contract was 11 months and the same was expired on 09.01.2019. Thus, on expiry of the period of contract, an order of termination was issued in proceedings dated 09.01.2019, which is under challenge in the present Writ Petition.

2.Appointments made on contract basis cannot be a ground to seek further extension or regularization. Regular appointments are to be made strictly following the rules in force. Merely on the basis of contract appointment, a person cannot claim continuation of service or confirmation of service.
