PRAYER : Petition is filed under Article 226 of the Constitution of India praying for the issue of a Writ of Habeas Corpus, calling for the entire records, connected with the detention order of the Respondent No.2 in Detention Order No.30/2021, dated 07.07.2021 and quash the same and direct the respondents to produce the body or person of the detenu by name Vijay Anand, son of Sathiyaseelan, aged about 42 years, detained as "Drug Offender" at Madurai Central Prison before this Court and set him at liberty forthwith.

For Petitioner : Mr.R.Alagumani

For Respondents : Mr.S.Ravi

Additional Public Prosecutor

and

DR.G.JAYACHANDRAN, J.

This Habeas Corpus Petition has been filed by the wife of the detenu, challenging the detention order passed in Detention Order No.30/2021, dated 07.07.2021, by the 2nd respondent, branding him as "Drug Offender", as contemplated under Section 2(e) of Tamil Nadu Act 14 of 1982.

2. Even though the petitioner has raised several grounds to quash the impugned detention order, the learned counsel for the petitioner would mainly place arguments on the ground of delay in disposal of the petitioner's representation. In this regard, the learned counsel for the petitioner would state that the procedural safeguards guaranteed under Articles 21 and 22 of the Constitution of India have not been followed in this case and there is unexplained and inordinate delay in disposal of the petitioner's representation, which would vitiate the impugned order of detention.

3. Mr.S.Ravi, the learned Additional Public Prosecutor, appearing for the respondents would state that after satisfying with the materials placed by the sponsoring authority, the detaining authority has passed the impugned detention order and therefore, there is no infirmity or illegality in the same. He would produce the proforma regarding the disposal of the petitioner's representation and would state that even if there is any delay in disposal of the petitioner's representation, it has not caused any prejudice to the rights of the detenu. Thus, he would pray for dismissal of this petition.

4. Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner as well as the respondents.

5. Perusal of the proforma furnished by the learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondents would show that as against the impugned detention order, the petitioner made a representation to the first respondent dated 08.07.2021 and it was received on 28.07.2021. Remarks were called for on 28.07.2021 and it was received on 31.08.2021. The Deputy Secretary dealt with the matter on 01.09.2021. The concerned Minister dealt with the matter on 20.10.2021 and the representation came to be rejected on 20.10.2021. It is seen that in between 01.09.2021 and 20.10.2021, there was a delay of 48 days, after excluding the Government Holidays of 18 days, there was a delay of 30 days in considering the petitioner's representation.

6. At this juncture, it is useful to refer the decision of the Honourable Apex Court in the case of Rajammal vs. State of Tamil Nadu and another, reported in 1999 (1) SCC 417, wherein, the Apex Court has observed and held that it is for the Authority concerned to explain the delay, if any, in disposal of the representation and if any delay was caused on account of any indifference or lapse in considering the representation, such delay will adversely affect further detention of the prisoner.

7. In the case on hand, as stated supra, the delay of 30 days in considering the representation of the petitioner remains unexplained by the respondents. Hence, in our considered view, the detention order is liable to be set aside solely on the ground of delay by following the above decision of the Apex Court.

8. In fine, the Habeas Corpus Petition is allowed. The detention order passed in No.30/2021, dated 07.07.2021, by the 2nd respondent, is set aside. Consequently, the detenu viz., Vijay

Anand, S/o.Sathiyaseelan, aged about 42 years, who is now detained in Central Prison, Madurai, is directed to be released forthwith, unless his presence or custody or detention is required in connection with any other case.
