2. The private respondents have not entered personal appearance even after service of notice. The petitioner seeks access to the petition mentioned street. The petitioner alleges the caste discrimination. If that be so, it is open to the petitioner to file private complaint. Prima facie, it appears that there is a civil dispute between the petitioner on one hand and the private respondents on the other. The process of Writ Court cannot be utilized for such purposes.

3. Leaving open the petitioner's other rights and remedies, the Writ Petition is disposed of. There shall be no order as to costs. Consequently, connected miscellaneous petition stands closed.
