For Anticipatory Bail in Crime No.17 of 2022 on the file of the Respondent police.

ORDER : The Court made the following order :-

The petitioners/Accused Nos.6 and 8 to 12, apprehending arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the alleged offence punishable under Sections 498(A), 294(b) and 506(i) I.P.C. and Section 4 of DP Act, in Crime No.17 of 2022 on the file of the respondent police, seek anticipatory bail.

2.Reading of the FIR shows that there was dispute between the husband and wife, over which the Jamath intervened. In the Jamath there was compromise between the parties. The defacto complainant agreed for divorce through Talak. In pursuance of the aforesaid compromise, the 1st accused has filed O.S.No.174 of 2021 to dissolve the marriage before the District Munsif Court, Pattukottai. But the defacto complainant has stated that she was forced and coerced she did not agree for any such compromise. During the Jamath conciliation process, she demanded her jewels, Seervarisai etc. But, that was not returned to her. Instead, she was criminally intimidated. Based upon the complaint only, the case has been registered.

3.Considering the limited role that has been played by the petitioners, who are the Jamathars and are noway connected with the matrimonial dispute between the husband and wife, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4.Accordingly, this Criminal Original Petition is allowed and the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, before the learned Judicial Magistrate, Pattukottai, on condition that the petitioners shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) each with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned and the petitioners shall appear before the respondent police daily at 10.30 a.m. until further orders. The petitioners shall comply with the condition stipulated under Section 438 Cr.P.C. scrupulously.

5.The petitioners shall appear before the concerned Magistrate within a period of 15 days from the date on which the order copy made ready, failing which, the petition for anticipatory bail stands dismissed.
