This Criminal Original Petition has been filed to quash the FIR in Crime No.155 of 2022, on the file of the first respondent.

2. The contention of the petitioners is that based on the complaint lodged by the second respondent, the first respondent registered First Information Report in Crime No.155 of 2022 for the offences punishable under Sections 147, 148, 341, 294(b), 323, 324, 336 and 506(ii) I.P.C., against the petitioners.

3. The case is still at the stage of investigation. By passage of time, the parties have decided to bury their hatchet and compromise the dispute amicably among themselves.

4. The learned counsel for the petitioners submitted that it is a case and case in counter. The defacto complainant and the accused persons are belong to the same villages. They settled the matter out of the Court and they have been filed a Joint Memo of Compromise before this Court which have been signed by the petitioners and the second respondent and also by their respective counsel. The petitioners and the second respondent were also present in person before this Court and they were identified by the learned Government Advocate and Mr.K.Selvam, Sub-Inspector of Police, Muthukulathur Police Station, Ramanathapuram District. This Court also enquired both the parties and was satisfied that the parties have come to an amicable settlement between themselves.

5.In the instant case, the dispute is of personal in nature and the parties had compromised. Where the parties have compromised the matter, the High Court has to power to quash the F.I.R in Crime No.155 of 2022 for the offence under Sections 147, 148, 341, 294(b), 323, 324, 336 and 506(ii) I.P.C

Crl.O.P.(MD) No.13628 of 2022

6. The legal position expressed by the Hon'ble Apex Court in the case of Gian Singh vs. State of Panjab and another reported in (2012)10 SCC 303 and Parbathbhai Aahir @ Parbathbhai Vs. State of Gujrath reported in (2017)9 SCC 641 were taken into consideration.

8. Accordingly, this Criminal Original Petition stands allowed and as a sequel, the proceedings in Crime No.155 of 2022 on the file of the first respondent police, is quashed insofar as the petitioners alone and the terms of joint compromise memo shall form part and parcel of this order.
