ORDER

This Criminal Original Petition has been filed to quash the FIR in Crime No.28/2016 on the file of the first respondent Police.

2. Instead of being listed under the caption 'for reporting compromise', the matter is wrongly listed under the caption 'for reporting compliance'.

3. The second respondent / defacto complainant as well as the petitioner/accused are present before this Court in person and they are identified by their respective learned counsels and both the parties have filed joint compromise memo stating that the matter in issue between them has been amicably resolved and therefore, the second respondent / defacto complainant is not willing to prosecute the case and therefore would pray for quashing the case.

4. The joint compromise memo, duly signed by the petitioner, the second respondent and also by their respective counsels is filed before this Court. The second respondent / defacto complainant has also stated that the property in dispute has been handed over to her by way of another document. The brother of the defacto complainant, who is present before this Court in person, has also confirmed the same. Since the matter in issue has been compromised between the parties, no purpose will be served in keeping the case pending further.

5. In the result, by recording the compromise, this Criminal Original Petition is allowed and the proceedings in FIR in Crime No.28/2016, on the file of the first respondent police is quashed in respect of the petitioner. The joint compromise memo shall form part and parcel of this order.
