ORDER

Heard the learned counsel appearing for the writ petitioner and the learned Additional Advocate General assisted by the learned Government Advocate appearing for the respondents.

2. Usilampatty Panchayat Union issued tender notification for leasing out the petition mentioned shop. The petitioner turned out to be the highest bidder. Since the lease was not granted to him he filed the present writ petition.

3. When the matter was taken up for hearing, the learned Additional Advocate General assisted by the learned Government Advocate appearing for the respondents submitted that the order has been issued granting lease in favour of the writ petitioner.

4. But the matter cannot be closed as infructuous. This is because the petition mentioned shop is presently in occupation of the previous licensee. The respondents are, therefore, directed to treat the previous licensee as encroacher and take emergent steps to effect their petition mentioned premises. The license period of the petitioner will commence from the date when the petition mentioned shop is physically handed over to the petitioner.

5. This writ petition is allowed on these terms. No costs.
