this Court. The third respondent also not represented through her Counsel or appeared in person.

3. The contention put forth by the petitioner is that the third respondent is not a resident within 3 km radius in and around Vadugupatti. The third respondent was married and staying with her husband. The third respondent has shown her father's native place and has obtained employment.

4. However, the said contention was denied by the first and second respondents. The learned Government Advocate appearing for the first and second respondents has produced Aadhar card of Kaleeshwari, wherein, it has been stated that she is staying in Vadugupatti and the Aadhar card states the address as 37, School Street, Vadugupatti Post.

5. Recording the said submission, this Court is of the considered opinion that the petitioner has not raised any valid ground to
