ORDER

Today, when the matter is taken up for consideration, the learned counsel appearing for respondents submits that the order of this Court dated 03.03.2021 passed in W.P.(MD)No.4298 of 2021 has been complied with, by paying interest at the rate of 6% to the petitioner on the belated payment of the retirement benefits.

the same that for the commutation amount, the respondents have not paid any interest as ordered by the Court.

3. This Court, vide order dated 03.03.2021, directed the respondents to pay interest to the petitioner at the rate of 6% p.a. on the belated payment of retirement benefits, commencing from the date of retirement till the date of actual disbursement. According to the learned counsel for the respondents, interest on the belated payment of retirement benefits was settled to the petitioner. However, the grievance of the petitioner is that the interest was not paid to the commutation amount.

4. Commutation of Pension means payment of lump sum amount in lieu of a portion of pension surrendered voluntarily by the petitioner based on duration of period in relation to the age. This is purely an optional facility provided by the Government to the pensioner. The duration is fixed with reference to age. If any employee commutes a portion of pension, such portion of the pension shall be deducted from his monthly pension for a period of 15 years from the date of such commutation. The commuted portion will be restored after 15 years by the pension disbursing officer.

5. The commutation amount is for future pension. The petitioner can either waive or get the benefit through his pension. Therefore, the non-payment of interest for the commutation amount cannot be treated as violation of order of this Court. Accordingly, the Contempt Petition is closed. No costs.
