ORDER

This Criminal Revision Case has been filed to set aside the order, dated 11.08.2022, passed by the 1st respondent/2nd Class Executive

Crl.R.C.(MD).No.1002 of 2022

Magistrate/Revenue Tahsildar, Bodinaickanur, Theni District, in M.C.No.
78/2022/A5.

2.The proceedings under Section 122(1)(b) has been initiated against the petitioner, for violation of bond executed under Section 110(c) Cr.P.C. Reading of the order shows that there is complete non-application of mind. It has been stated that after executing the bond a case in Crime No.261 of 2022 has been registered on the file of the second respondent on 03.08.2022 for the offence punishable under Section 8(c) r/w 20(b)(ii)(B) of NDPS Act and the petitioner was arrested on the same day itself for alleging illegal transportation of Ganja and on 11.08.2022 this order has been passed by the first respondent imposing sentence of punishment of imprisonment, which is not reasonable and proper. According to the learned counsel for the petitioner, before passing the above said order, no enquiry was undertaken as contemplated under Section 122(1)(b) of Cr.P.C.

3.The learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondent submitted that the procedure has been followed properly. According to the learned Additional Public Prosecutor, summon was issued to the petitioner on 04.08.2022 and statement of witnesses has been recorded on 08.08.2022 and sufficient opportunities were given to her. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor circulated a copy of the statement recorded from the petitioner. Though the petitioner has executed sureties before the first respondent, in violation of her own bond, she has involved in the offences in Crime No.261/2022 before the second respondent police. Therefore, the impugned order has been passed by the first respondent.

4.The learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that even though subsequent happenings are there, the procedure has not been properly followed. For that purpose, the learned counsel for the petitioner relied upon a decision of this Court in P.Sathish @ Sathish Kumar Vs. State represented by the Inspector of Police, reported in 2019 (2) MWN (Cr.) 136 and the relevant passages are extracted herein.

“1.Notice to be sent to the person by the Executive Magistrate to show cause as to why action under Section 122(1)(b) of Cr.P.C should not be taken for breach of the bond executed under Section 117 Cr.P.C on a date fixed.

2.At the enquiry, the Executive Magistrate should furnish the person the materials sought to be relied upon, including statements of witnesses, if any, in the vernacular (if the person is not knowing the language other than his mother tongue).

3.If the person wishes to engage an Advocate to represent him at the enquiry, an opportunity to have a counsel of his choice should be provided to him.

4.The Executive Magistrate shall inform the person about his right to have the assistance of a lawyer for defending him in the enquiry.

5.The enquiry shall be conducted by the Executive Magistrate on the notified date or such other date as may be fixed and the person should be allowed to participate in the same.

6.At the enquiry, an opportunity should be given to the person to :(i) Cross-examine the official witnesses, if any and (ii) produce documents and witnesses, if any, in support of his case.

7.Such Executive Magistrate or his successor in office, should then, apply his mind on the materials available on record, in the enquiry, and pass speaking order.

8.An order under Section 122(1)(b) of Cr.P.C should contain the grounds upon which the Executive Magistrate is satisfied that the person has breached the bond.

9.A copy of the order should be furnished to the person along with the materials produced at the enquiry.

10.The enquiry, as far as possible shall be completed within 30 days and at no circumstances, the enquiry shall be adjourned unnecessarily. The advocates, who appear on behalf of the persons concerned, are expected to co-operate with the
