For Petitioner : Mr.S.Arunachalam

For Respondent : Mr.K.Jagadees Balan
Standing Counsel

ORDER

Heard the learned counsel on either side.

2. The petitioner retired from service on 31.12.2017. His grievance was that he was permitted encashment of only 248 days of earned leave and for remaining 14 days which remained to his credit he was not permitted encashment. The Management has taken the stand that the earned leave must have been surrendered every year and that therefore, he cannot be permitted to make the claim for excess leave.

3. As rightly pointed out by the learned counsel appearing for the writ petitioner, right from the year 2011 onwards, the employees of the respondent corporation were not allowed to surrender the earned leave. The Management cannot be permitted to take advantage of their own wrong. The petitioner was ready to surrender the leave during the relevant period but he was not allowed to do so. In that view of the matter, the order impugned in the writ petition is quashed. The respondent is directed to pay the amount equivalent to 14 days of earned leave. The petitioner will be paid based on the salary drawn by him in the year 2014. This amount will carry interest at the rate of 6% per annum
