ORDER

This writ petition is filed for a Writ of Mandamus, directing the respondent to sanction and allow the petitioner to withdraw a sum of Rs.3,50,000/- from and out of his own accumulation of Provident Fund contribution available to the credit of the respondent, for his son's marriage, within a time to be stipulated by this Court.

2. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submits that the petitioner, who is working as Senior Tradesman in the respondent Transport Corporation, arranged marriage for his son and for the marriage expenses, he made an application on 01.10.2021 to the respondent Corporation to disburse a sum of Rs.3,50,000/- from his EPF Account. Though the application has been made on 01.10.2021, the same has not been considered so far. Therefore, the petitioner is before this Court.

3. Mr.J.Senthil Kumariah, learned Standing Counsel appearing for the respondent Corporation submits that as per Rule-13 of the TNSTC EPF Trust Rules, the petitioner is entitled for a sum of Rs.3,20,000/-, out of which, the respondent Corporation has already paid a sum of Rs.50,000/- to the petitioner. However, the remaining amount of Rs.2,70,000/- has not been paid in view of financial crisis. He further submits that the balance amount of Rs.2,70,000/- would be paid within six weeks.

4. This Court paid its anxious consideration to the rival submissions made.

5. Admittedly, the petitioner is entitled for a sum of Rs.3,20,000/- from his EPF Account and the petitioner has made an application on 01.10.2021. The respondent Corporation has paid only a sum of Rs.50,000/- to the petitioner and the balance amount of Rs.2,70,000/- has not been paid by the respondent Corporation by referring the financial crisis. The Provident Fund Contribution is the contribution provided by the Employees and it is in no way connected with the financial crisis. Therefore, this Court is not inclined to accept the contention of the respondent Corporation.

6. Accordingly, the writ petition is disposed of with a direction to the respondent Corporation to disburse the balance amount of Rs.2,70,000/- to the petitioner within a period of four weeks from the date of receipt of a copy of this order. No costs.
