

against the second accused, because of that only he was implicated in this case. He would further submit that he is an innocent and not committed any such offence, as alleged by the prosecution and that the petitioner is in custody from 12.12.2021. Hence, he seeks bail.

4.The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent police would submit that the petitioner was already booked for similar offence and released on station bail on 11.01.2021 and on the next day he was found selling the same banned tobacco products, hence this case has been registered against the petitioner and that the petitioner is continuously engaged in selling banned products.

5.In response, the learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that he is ready to file an undertaking affidavit that he will not indulge any kind of offence in future.

6.Reading of records shows that the petitioner is continuously engaged in selling banned products. However, considering the period of incarceration undergone by the petitioner and his readiness to file an undertaking, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

7.In this regard, the petitioner shall file an undertaking affidavit before the trial Court that the petitioner will not indulge any offence in future and he will not sell the banned products henceforth. If any case is registered against the petitioner in further, the bail that has been granted in this case, is automatically cancelled without reference to this Court.

8.On production of such receipt/acknowledgment and undertaking, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail, on executing a personal bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the learned Judicial Magistrate, Sankarankovil, and on further condition that the petitioner shall report before the respondent police daily at 10.30 a.m. until further orders.
