The petitioner/accused, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offence punishable under Section 294 (b), 323, 324 and 506(ii) IPC in Crime.No.108 of 2022, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that due to previous enmity the petitioner and other accused trespassed into house of the defacto complainant and attacked him with deadly weapons and caused injuries all over the body. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is innocent and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution and his name has been falsely implicated in this case and seeks anticipatory bail.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) would submit that the injured was discharged from the hospital. He would further submit that the co-accused has already been arrested and released on bail and investigation of the case is pending and he strongly opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and also considering the fact that the injured was discharged from the hospital and that the co-accused has already been released on bail, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.
