HCP(MD)No.1962 of 2021

PRAYER: Petition filed under Article 226 of the Constitution of India, to issue a Writ of Habeas Corpus, calling for the entire records, connected with the detention order of the second respondent in Detention Order No. 116/2021 dated 02.12.2021 and quash the same and direct the respondents to produce the body or person of the detenu by name Syed Ibrahim, son of Kadher Mydeen, aged about 28 years, now detained as “Goonda” at Madurai Central Prison before this Court and set him at liberty forthwith.

For Petitioner : Mr.R.Alagumani

For Respondents : Mr.A.Thiruvadi Kumar,
Additional Public Prosecutor

ORDER

[Order of the Court was made by P.N.PRAKASH, J.]

The petitioner is the detenu viz., Syed Ibrahim, son of Kadher Mydeen, aged about 28 years. The detenu has been detained by the second respondent by his order in D.O. No.116/2021 dated 02.12.2021, holding him to be a "Goonda", as contemplated under Section 2(f) of Tamil Nadu Act 14 of 1982. The said order is under challenge in this Habeas Corpus Petition.

2. We have heard the learned counsel appearing for the petitioner and the learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondents. We have also perused the records produced by the Detaining Authority.

3. At the outset, this Court wanted to know whether the case in Kodaikanal Police Station Crime No.303 of 2012 under Sections 366(A), 376 and 364 I.P.C. was committed to the Court of Session or not, for which, on instructions, from Mr.M.Krishna Kumar, Sub Inspector of Police, Kodaikanal, Mr.A.Thiruvadi Kumar, learned Additional Public Prosecutor submitted that the case has committed to the Court of Session in S.C.No.72 of 2019 and the same is pending on the file of the Fast Track Mahila Court, Dindigul, and that the detainee has been placed under formal arrest in the said case on 24.08.2022 as NBW was pending against him for his absconding.

4. Though several grounds have been raised in the Habeas Corpus Petition, the learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would mainly focus his argument on the ground that there is gross violation of procedural safeguards, which would vitiate the detention. The learned counsel, by placing authorities, submitted that the representation made by the petitioner was not considered on time and there was an inordinate and unexplained delay.

5. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor strongly opposed the Habeas Corpus Petition by filing his counter. He would submit that though there was delay in considering the representation, on that score alone, the impugned detention order cannot be quashed. According to the learned Additional Public Prosecutor, no prejudice has been caused to the detenu and thus, there is no violation of the fundamental rights guaranteed under Articles 21 and 22 of the Constitution of India.

6. The Detention Order in question was passed on 02.12.2021. The petitioner made a representation on 14.12.2021. Thereafter, remarks were called for by the Government from the Detaining Authority on 21.12.2021. The remarks were duly received on 30.12.2021. Thereafter, the Government considered the matter and passed the order rejecting the petitioner's representation on 16.06.2022.

7. It is the contention of the petitioner that there was a delay of 8 days in submitting the remarks by the Detaining Authority, of which 2 days was a Government Holiday and hence there was an inordinate delay of 6 days in submitting the remarks. It is the further contention of the petitioner that the remarks were received on 30.12.2021 and there was a delay of 162 days in considering the representation by the Hon'ble Minister for Electricity, Prohibition and Excise Department after the Deputy Secretary dealt with it, of which 52 days were Government Holidays, hence, there was inordinate delay of 110 days in considering the representation.

8. In Rekha vs. State of Tamil Nadu (2011 (5) SCC 244), the Honourable Supreme Court has held that the procedural safeguards are required to be zealously watched and enforced by the Courts of law and their rigour cannot be allowed to be diluted on the basis of the nature of the alleged activities undertaken by the detenu.

HCP(MD)No.1962 of 2021

9. In Sumaiya vs. The Secretary to Government (2007 (2)

MWN (Cr.) 145), a Division Bench of this Court has held that the unexplained delay of three days in disposal of the representation made on behalf of the detenu would be sufficient to set aside the order of detention.

10. In Tara Chand vs. State of Rajasthan and others, reported in 1980 (2) SCC 321, the Honourable Supreme Court has held that any inordinate and unexplained delay on the part of the Government in considering the representation renders the very detention illegal.

11. In the subject case, admittedly, there is an inordinate and unexplained delay of 6 days in submitting the remarks by the Detaining Authority and unexplained delay of 110 days in considering the representation by the Hon'ble Minister for Electricity, Prohibition and Excise Department. The impugned detention order is, therefore, liable to be quashed.

12. In the result, the Habeas Corpus Petition is allowed and the order of detention in D.O.No.116/2021 dated 02.12.2021, passed by the second respondent is set aside. The detenu, viz., Syed Ibrahim, son of Kadher Mydeen, aged about 28 years, is directed to be released forthwith unless his detention is required in connection with any other case.
