PETITION FOR ANTICIPATORY BAIL Under Sec.438 of Cr.P.C

PRAYER :-

For Anticipatory Bail in Crime No.11 of 2022 on the file of the Respondent Police.

ORDER : The Court made the following order :-

The petitioner/A5, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offence under Sections 419, 420, 423, 465, 467, 468, 471 and 120(b) of IPC in Crime No.11 of 2022, seeks anticipatory bail.

2.The case of the prosecution is that one Karumuthu Thiagarajan Chettiyar had purchased a property in Survey No.248 to an extent of 1.75.37 acres at Ayiurperi Village, Tenkasi District and the same was registered in sale deed No.830 of 1954 dated 09.09.1954. The above said Karumuthu Thiagarajan Chettiyar died on 29.07.1974 leaving behind his only legal heir Karumuthu T. Kannan and he lodged a complaint before the respondent police stating that the accused 1 and 2 had created forged documents and death certificate of the said Karumuthu Thiyagarajan Chettiyar as he was died on 03.05.1986 and A1 along with one Parvathi were legal heirs of the above said Karumuthu Thiyagarajan Chettiyar. Thereafter, the said Lailtha/A1 and A2 had executed a sale deed in favour of the A3 and A4. The role of the petitioner in this case is that he is a document writer and drafted the above fake sale deeds. Hence, the complaint.

3.The learned counsel for the petitioners would submit that based on the confession statement of the co-accused, the petitioner has been arrayed as accused in this case. He would further submit that the petitioner is a document writer and he is innocent and he has been falsely implicated in this case. The entire allegation revolves around only against A1 to A4 in this case. He would further submit that the co-accused were already released on bail by the learned Special Court for Land Grabbing Cases, Tirunelveli. Hence, he prays for anticipatory bail.

4.The learned Government Advocate (Crl. side) would submit that there are eight accused involved in this case and the petitioner is arrayed as A5. The petitioner along with other accused had entered into a criminal conspiracy and created forged documents (death certificate and legal heirs certificate) and created forged sale deed. The investigation is still pending and the custodial interrogation of the petitioner is necessary in this case. Hence, he prays for anticipatory bail.

5.The learned counsel for the intervenor vehemently opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

6.Considering the gravity and nature of the offence and also considering the fact that the investigation is in preliminary stage and the custodial interrogation of the petitioner is very much necessary in this case, this Court is not inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

7.Accordingly, this Criminal Original Petition is dismissed.
