2. The case of the prosecution is that on 09.11.2022, the defacto complainant came in his vehicle bearing Registration No.59-CE-4878 along with his friend near Government School, Kulamankalam, at that time, the petitioner and others in the opposite direction driven the vehicle in rash and negligent manner. When the same was questioned by the defacto complainant, the petitioner and other accused said to have assaulted the defacto complainant and abused him in filthy languages and also threatened with dire consequences. Hence, the complaint.

3.The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent person and he did not commit any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He would further submit that the petitioner shall abide any condition imposed by this Court. Hence, the petitioner is granted anticipatory bail.

4.The learned Government Advocate(crl.side) appearing before the respondent police would submit that no previous case is pending against the petitioner and the injured was treated as out-patient. He would further submit that the first accused was arrested and he is still in judicial custody and investigation in this case is not yet completed. Hence, he opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5.Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and also considering the facts that the injured was treated as out-patient and the petitioner is not having any bad antecedents, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.
