The petitioner/Sole Accused, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 294(b), 324 and 506(ii) of IPC, in Cr.No.131 of 2022, seeks anticipatory bail.

2.The case of the prosecution is that on 97.11.2022, at about 03.20 p.m, when the defacto complainant trying to start his motor cycle for attending family function of one Ramesh, the petitioner came there and removed the key from the motor cycle. When the same was questioned by the defacto complainant, the petitioner abused the defacto complainant in filthy language, attacked him and caused injury. Hence, the complaint.

3.The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is innocent and he has been falsely implicated in this case. He would further submit that the injured was discharged from the hospital. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4.The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) would submit that the injured was discharged from the hospital. But, however, the petitioner is having 1 previous case and the investigation is pending. Hence, he strongly opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5.Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and also considering the fact that the injured was discharged from the hospital, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.
