1971 and the plan was also published in the Gazette on 19.10.2005 under

Section 31 of the Tamil Nadu Town and Country Planning Act, 1971.

Thereafter, no steps have been taken to acquire the land nor any notice was issued to the petitioner for acquisition of the same. 5. Section 38 of the Tamil Nadu Town and Country Planning Act, 1971 provides for release of property in favour of its owner in the event of the property not been acquired within a period of 3 years. It is admitted position that in spite of publication of the approval of the "Kochadai Detailed Development Plan No.3" in the official gazette dated 19.10.2005, till date, the land has not been acquired and therefore, it is deemed to have been released to the owners on expiry of 3 years in the light of Section 38 of said Act. According to the order passed by the Division Bench, when no steps have been taken for completing the acquisition within 3 years period and when the property earmarked for the purpose has not been utilized as per the notification, the property would be deemed to have released from reservation, allotment or designation as per Section 38 of the Tamil Nadu Town and Country Planning Act, 1971.

7. The learned counsel for the petitioner has also relied upon the order passed by this Court in W.P.(MD)No.4753 of 2017, dated 28.03.2017 [P.Babu vs. The Director and another], in which, a direction was issued in identical set of facts and circumstances, directing to release of the land belonging to the petitioner therein from "Kochadai Detailed Development Plan No.3", based on the direction issued by the Division Bench of this Court. Against the said order, the respondents preferred a Writ Appeal in W.A. (MD)No.447 of 2020 before the Division Bench of this Court. The Division Bench, vide its judgment dated 02.06.2020, dismissed the writ appeal and upheld the order of the learned Single Judge. Since the present writ petition directly covered by the aforesaid decisions and the directions issued by this Court squarely cover the claim of the petitioner herein, there is no impediment to allow the writ petition as prayed for.
