3.The learned counsel for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners are innocents and they have not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He would further submit that a counter case is pending against the de-facto complainant. Hence, he prays for anticipatory bail.

4.The learned Government Advocate(Crl.Side) would submit that the petitioners attacked the defacto complainant and caused injuries. He would further submit that the injured was discharged from the hospital. However, considering the gravity of offence, he strongly opposed to grant anticipatory bail.

6.Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of their arrest or their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order, before the learned Judicial Magistrate Court No.III, Trichy, on condition that the petitioners shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/-(Rupees Ten Thousand only)each with two sureties, each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent Police or to the Police Officer, who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned and on further conditions that:
