ORDER

[Order of the Court was made by D.KRISHNAKUMAR, J.]

Challenging the impugned eviction notice issued by the respondent dated 23.11.2022, the petitioner has filed this Writ Petition.

2. Heard Mr.R.Murali, learned counsel for the petitioner and Mr.K.Balasubramani, learned Special Government Pleader, who takes notice for the respondent.

3. By consent of both parties, this Writ Petition is taken up for final disposal.

4. It is the specific contention of the learned counsel for the petitioner that without issuing any show cause notice under the Tamil Nadu Land Encroachment Act, 1905 (hereinafter referred to as 'the Act') calling for the objections of the petitioner, the present impugned eviction notice has been issued and therefore, the impugned notice is liable to be set aside.

5. Section 7 of the Act mandates that prior notice to person in occupation has to be issued before taking proceedings under Section 6 of the Act. The notice has to specify the extent of the land so occupied and calling upon the encroacher to show cause before a certain date that why should he not be proceeded with under Section 6 of the Act and the said notice also to be served in the manner prescribed under Section 25 of the Tamil Nadu Revenue Recovery Act, 1864.

6. Section 6(2) of the Tamil Nadu Land Encroachment Act, 1905, further provides that an eviction under this Section shall be made in the manner prescribed. By serving a notice in the manner provided in Section 7 of the Act on the person who has encroached the land requiring him to give his objections before the authorities, the District Collector would hold a summary enquiry into the facts of the case. Only after the enquiry, if the objections are not accepted, the order of eviction has to be passed which is also appealable under Section 10 of the Act before the District Collector.

7. At this juncture, the learned counsel for the respondent fairly submitted that the impugned notice may be treated as show cause notice and the petitioner may be directed to submit his objections, which will be considered by the authorities concerned and only then, appropriate action will be taken for removal of encroachment, if any, in the place in question.

8. Recording the above submission, the impugned notice is treated as show cause notice and the petitioner is directed to file his objections / reply to the same before the authorities concerned, along with all supporting materials, within a period of two (2) weeks from the date of receipt of a copy of this order. After receipt of the same, the authorities concerned shall consider such objection and if it is not satisfactory, then conduct a proper enquiry and thereafter, shall pass orders for eviction of encroachment, if any, by due process of law within a period of four weeks thereafter. Till such time, status quo prevailing as on date shall be maintained by both parties.
