ORDER

This Criminal Original Petition has been filed, invoking Section 482 Cr.P.C., seeking orders to direct the second respondent herein from in any manner not to interfere with the civil rights of the petitioner's possession and enjoyment under the guise of enquiry.

2. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner had taken lease of property belonging to the fourth respondent; that the fourth respondent and the petitioner entered into a sale agreement in respect of the adjacent property, that he had been proceeding with construction and that the fourth respondent has subsequently sold the property to one Sundaramahalingam and that the petitioner has been harassing by them.

3. When the matter is taken up for hearing today, the learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the State would
