The petitioners, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 323 and 506(i) IPC in Crime No.87 of 2022 on the file of the respondent police, seek anticipatory bail.

2.The case of the prosecution as per the Defacto Complainant, is that the petitioners have attacked the defacto complainant in the drunken mood and caused injuries and also abused him in filthy language. Hence, the complaint.

3.The learned Counsel for the Petitioners would submit that the Petitioners are innocent and they have not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution and their names have been falsely implicated in this case and thereby, he seeks anticipatory bail.

4.The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) would submit that the injured was discharged from the hospital and there is no previous case against the petitioners. He would further submit that the investigation of the case is pending and hence, he opposes to grant anticipatory bail.

5.Heard the learned counsels and perused the materials available on record. Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case and that the injured was discharged from the hospital and that there is no previous case against the petitioners, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.

6.Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate, Aruppukottai, on condition that the petitioners shall execute bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) each with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned, failing which, the petition for anticipatory bail shall stand dismissed and on further condition that:

[a] the petitioners and the sureties shall affix their photographs and Left Thumb Impression in the surety bond and the Magistrate may obtain a copy of their Aadhar card or Bank pass Book to ensure their identity.
