2. Heard Mr.K.E Hari Prasad, learned counsel for the petitioner, and learned Assistant Public Prosecutor for the respondent-State.

3. This Court, by order dated 10.12.2021, dismissed the anticipatory bail application of the petitioner, vide CrI.P.No.8591 of 2021, where in, it is specifically stated that this Court is not inclined to grant pre-arrest bail to the petitioner, as he is involved in similar offences, and on that learned counsel for the petitioner stated that the petitioner will surrender before the concerned jurisdictional Court and move an appropriate application seeking bail. As such this Court directed the petitioner to surrender and move an appropriate application for bail and on such filing of application, the Court concerned shall consider the same, in accordance with law.

4. Now, the petitioner has come up with this petition seeking pre-arrest bail stating several reasons and submitted that A.1 is involved in other crimes, but not against this petitioner.
