For the Respondents: SRI M ACHUTA REDDY, Advocate

The Court made the following : ORDER

HONOURABLE SMT. JUSTICE P. SREE SUDHACIVIL REVISION PETITION No.720 of 2019ORDER:

Heard Sri K. Sreenivas, learned counsel for the Revision Petitioner and learned counsel for the respondents 1, 3 and 4 Sri M. Achuta Reddy, as well. Perused the material placed on record.

2. Challenging the docket order dated 24-12-2018 passed in O.S.No.10 of 2010 by the Principal Junior Civil Judge, Kalwakurthy, this Civil Revision Petition is filed by the plaintiffs.

3. As can be seen from the docket order under challenge, it was observed that on his behalf plaintiff called for records as per order in LA.No.685 of 2018 and intended to mark the panchanama dated 30-7-2009 through PW-3, who is one of the panch. For which, defendants seriously disputed that when a document is called for from the author, i.e., MRO and only through him it has to be marked. The trial court after hearing both sides held that it is a public document and the objections raised by the plaintiff is proper for marking the document. O.S.No. 10 of 2010 is filed for declaration and also for injunction and to delete the names of the defendants from the ROR by restoring the names of the plaintiffs. During the pendency of the proceedings, it seems that panchanama was called for and the objection is only regarding marking of the document. A perusal of the document shows that the said panchanama was conducted by the Assistant Revenue Inspector, Kalwakurthy, as such, the said document has to be marked through him but not through one of the panch witness. I do not find any irregularity or illegality in the order of the trial court, which needs no interference.

4. In the result, this Civil Revision Petition is accordingly dismissed. No costs.

5. As a sequel, pending miscellaneous applications if any, shall stand disposed of.
