..Respondent

This Appeal coming on for orders as to admission and upon perusing the memorandum of grounds filed herein and upon hearing the arguments of Sri P. Keshava Rao, Advocate for Appellant and of Sri Bankatlal Mandhani, Advocate for respondent.

The Court made the following Order :-

It is stated that there is some encroachment. The report of the Commissioner is heavily relied upon. However, the said statement is denied by the counsel representing respondent. It is also brought to the notice of this Court that the husband of respondent is an Advocate. As can be seen from the controversy between the parties, the alleged encroachment appears to be trivial. The ground of estoppel also had been raised and agitated in elaboration. This Court is not inclined to express any opinion however, in the peculiar facts of the case, this Court is well satisfied that this is a fit matter where an endeavour to be made to amicably settle the dispute between the parties, especially in view of the fact that there is long lapse of time from the date of the institution of the suit as on today, the date of hearing of the Second Appeal. Hence, Registry to forward the papers to Lok Adalat, Warangal, and it is needless to say that Lok Adalat, Warangal, to make sincere effort and endeavour to see that the matter is amicably settled between the parties. The Lok Adalat, Warangal, to issue notices to the respective parties by fixing the date and further proceed with the matter.
