I.A. NO: 1 OF 2022

Petition under Section 482 of Cr.P.C praying that in the circumstances stated in the Memorandum of Grounds of Criminal Petition, the High Court may be pleased to stay of all further Proceedings in FIR.No.109 of 2022 on 26-08-2022 on the file of the Julapalli Police Station

This Petition coming on for hearing, upon perusing the Memorandum of Grounds of Criminal Petition and upon hearing the arguments of Sri K Sanjeev, Advocate for the Petitioner and the Additional Public Prosecutor on behalf of the Respondent No.1 and for the Respondent No. 2 Not appeared in person or by Advocate

The Court made the following: ORDER

THE HON'BLE Dr. JUSTICE CHILLAKUR SUMALATHA

CRIMINAL PETITION No.9254 of 2022

ORDER :

1. Heard Sri Sanjeev, learned counsel for the petitioner as well as the learned Additional Public Prosecutor who is representing respondent No.1.
2. Seeking the Court to quash the proceedings that are pending against the petitioner, who is arrayed as accused in Crime No.109 of 2022 of Julapalli Police Station, Peddapalli District, the present Criminal Petition is filed.
3. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner and respondent No.2 belongs to different political parties and only due to political rivalry, respondent No.2 gave a false complaint to police basing on which a false case is foisted. By stating so, learned counsel seeks to quash the proceedings.
4. On the other hand, the submission of learned Additional Public Prosecutor is that seven witnesses were examined till now and all those witnesses supported the version of respondent No.2/de facto complainant. Learned Additional Public Prosecutor also submits that the petitioner is involved in two other criminal cases.

5. The contents of the complaint in nutshell are that on 24.08.2022, the petitioner called respondent No.2 over phone and made indecent statements with regard to the saree she wore and by stating that she appears sexy. He also commented in respect of her body parts. She informed the matter to her husband. The matter was informed to the wife of the petitioner/accused also. The petitioner went to the house of respondent No.2, took the phone of respondent No.2 and deleted the recorded conversation.

6. The allegations projected in the complaint are admittedly grave in nature. Though the learned counsel for the petitioner stated that due to political rivalry, such allegations are made, there is no basis or material before this court to accede to the said submission and to quash the proceedings.

7. This Court does not find any other grounds, more so justifiable grounds to exercise the power granted under Section 482 Cr.P.C and to quash the proceedings.

8. Resultantly, the criminal petition is dismissed.

9. As a sequel, miscellaneous petitions pending, if any, shall stand closed.
