

IN THE HIGH COURT OF PUNJAB AND HARYANA AT CHANDIGARH

Sr. No.113

CRM-M-624 of 2022

Date of Decision: 07.03.2022

Akshay

.... Petitioner

Versus

The State of U.T.Chandigarh and others

... Respondents

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE SANT PARKASH

Present: Mr. Harpreet S.Rakhra, Advocate for the petitioner.

Ms. Simsi Dhir Malhotra, APP, U.T. Chandigarh.

SANT PARKASH, J.

*[The aforesaid presence is being recorded through video conferencing
since the proceedings are being conducted in virtual court]*

Upon instruction from ASI Pardeep Kumar, Crime Branch, Chandigarh, it is again pointed out by learned State counsel that the petitioner is not wanted by any of the Police Station in Chandigarh.

In view of the above, learned counsel for the petitioner would agree that the present petition has become infructuous.

Accordingly, the present petition is dismissed as having been rendered infructuous.

(SANT PARKASH)
JUDGE

07.03.2022

Maninder

Whether speaking/reasoned : Yes/No
Whether reportable : Yes/No