The hearing of the case is being held through video conferencing on account of restricted functioning of the Courts.

As per the office note, the petitioner, previously, filed CRM-M-25886-2019, assailing the correctness of the order dated 23.04.2019, which was disposed of on 31.05.2019. In other words, this is the second attempt on the part of the petitioner to assail the correctness of the same order. The petitioner has not disclosed this fact in the petition.

The learned counsel representing the petitioner prays for permission to withdraw the present petition.

Keeping in view the aforesaid facts, it is evident that the petitioner has made an attempt to mislead the Court.

With these observations, the petition is dismissed as withdrawn, however, let this order be brought to the notice of the Appellate Court where the appeal filed by the petitioner is pending.

All the pending miscellaneous applications, if any, are also disposed of.
