AND FOR THE RESPONDENT IN CR-8376-2018.

MR. ARUN WALIA, SR.ADVOCATE
WITH MR. DINESH SHARMA, ADVOCATE
FOR THE RESPONDENTS IN CR-151-2019
AND FOR THE PETITIONER IN CR-8376-2018.

MANOJ BAJAJ, J.(ORAL)

These revision petitions have been filed by the landlord and the tenant respectively, to challenge the order dated 25.7.2018, passed by the appellate Authority in Rent Appeal No.58 of 2018, whereby the tenant has been directed to pay the mesne profits @ ₹20,000/- per month from the date of eviction order dated 3.1.2018, till handing over the possession of the premises to the landlord.

Today, learned counsel for the parties have stated that during the pendency of the revision petitions, the dispute between the parties stands settled and the petitioner Ashok Kumar(landlord) has given up his claim for mesne profits.

At this stage, Mr. Arun Walia, learned Sr.Advocate states that the possession of the demised property has also been handed over to the landlord and he also gives up his claim in the revision petition. Learned counsel for the parties have prayed for withdrawal of their respective revision petitions.

Both the revision petitions are dismissed as withdrawn.
