After arguing for a while, learned counsel for the petitioner seeks permission to withdraw the instant petition, while submitting that so far as the prayer made by the petitioner qua the protection of her life and liberty is concerned, she (petitioner) would be moving a fresh representation to respondent No.4-Senior Superintendent of Police, Sangrur, exclusively praying therein for the said protection only and as regards the remaining relief as sought by her in the present petition, she (petitioner) would be resorting to the appropriate efficacious remedy, as may be permissible to her under law, for this purpose and he further prays that respondent No.4 be directed to look into the fresh representation of the petitioner and to take appropriate action in respect thereof within some specific time frame.

Learned State counsel has submitted the status-report on behalf of respondents No.1 to 5, along-with Annexure R-1/T and the vernacular version thereof, in the Court and these documents are taken on the record and he submits that he has no objection to the above-discussed submission as well as the prayer as made by learned counsel for the petitioner.

Resultantly, the petition in hand stands dismissed for having been withdrawn with a direction to respondent No.4 that in case, the petitioner moves any fresh representation to him restricting her prayer therein for the protection of her life and liberty only, he shall look into the same and if the petitioner would be found to be genuinely deserving the said protection, then he shall take appropriate action, in accordance with law, in the given set of the facts and circumstances of the matter, within a period of ten days.
