Instant petition has been filed under Section 438 of Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973, seeking grant of anticipatory bail in case FIR No.85 dated 11.12.2019, registered under Sections 323, 324, 427, 34 of IPC, 1860, however Sections 498-A, 406 and 325 of IPC were added later on, at Police Station Talwara, District Hoshiarpur, Punjab.

Counsel for the petitioner submits that FIR has arisen out of a matrimonial dispute and in deference to the order dated 26.07.2022 passed by this Court, petitioner, who is the mother-in-law of the complainant, has joined the investigation. Still further, he submits that dispute has been amicably settled and a separate petition seeking quashing of FIR on the basis of compromise is pending before this Court. He has instructions to state that marriage has been dissolved by mutual consent.

Upon instructions from ASI Harjit Singh, State counsel submits that in view of the settlement arrived at between the parties, petitioner, who has joined the investigation, is no longer required for custodial interrogation.

Counsel for the complainant does not have any objection in case the interim protection granted to the petitioner is made absolute.

In view of the above facts, but without commenting on the merits of the case, present petition is allowed. Order dated 26.07.2022 is made absolute, subject to the fulfilment of conditions laid down in Section 438(2) Cr.P.C.
