It has been further stated that the trial is fixed for 17.01.2022.Notice of motion.Mr. Zorawar S.Chauhan, DAG, Haryana, accepts on behalf of the respondent-State.Adjourned to 07.04.2022.Meanwhile, it is directed that the petitioners shall surrender before the learned trial Court on or before 17.01.2022 and on their doing so, they shall be released on interim bail to the satisfaction of the learned trial Court/Duty Magistrate and it is further directed that the petitioners shall comply with the conditions as envisaged under Section 438*

(2) of Code of Criminal Procedure.”

Learned counsel for the petitioners contend that the petitioners who have been summoned under Section 319 Cr.P.C. have surrendered before the learned trial Court and have been admitted on interim bail in pursuance of the interim directions issued by this Court.

On instructions from SI Amit Kumar, learned State counsel has not assailed the aforesaid factual aspects and states that the petitioners have been summoned under Section 319 Cr.P.C and surrendered before the trial Court in pursuance of interim directions issued by this Court. As such, sufficient exceptional circumstances are made out to extend the concession of pre-arrest bail to the petitioners.

In view of the aforesaid submissions, the order dated 12.01.2022, granting interim bail to the petitioners is made absolute.

However, the petitioner shall abide by the conditions stipulated under Section 438(2) Cr.P.C.

It is further directed that the petitioners shall furnish fresh bail bonds to the satisfaction of the trial Court within a period of one month from today.

The petition is allowed.
