RAVI SHANKER JHA, CHIEF JUSTICE (oral)

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the respondent-authorities are not adhering to the parking policy and Marriage Palaces & Banquet Halls Policy and other stipulations contained in the Haryana Building Code-2017 framed pursuant to the orders passed by this Court in Civil Writ Petition Nos. 17296 of 2011 and 1418 of 2013. He submits that the petitioner has filed a representation in this regard before the respondent-authorities but the same has not yielded any result so far.

From the aforesaid, it is evident that the petitioner has raised the issues in question before the respondent-authorities which are pending decision. In the circumstances, learned counsel for the petitioner submits that he may be permitted to file a fresh representation regarding the issues in question before the authorities concerned who may be directed to consider and decide the same.

Learned Additional Advocate General appearing for the respondent-State of Haryana, on advance copy, submits that in case the petitioner does so, the authority concerned shall consider and take a decision thereon after duly taking into consideration the orders passed by this Court as well as the provisions of the Code.

In view of the aforesaid statement made by learned Additional Advocate General, Haryana, the petition stands disposed of.
