CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE ANIL KSHETARPAL

Present:- Mr. Hitesh Malik, Advocate for the Official Liquidator

ANIL KSHETARPAL, J (Oral)

This is a petition under Section 456 read with Section 468 of the Companies Act, 1956, for direction to the respondents to hand over the possession of the assets, properties, book of accounts and records of the Company to the Official Liquidator. This matter is pending for the last 8 years. However, despite best efforts, none has entered appearance for the respondents. The efforts have been made to serve the notices through various manners including publication.

Respondent no.21 appeared earlier to state that he has already resigned on the relevant date from the Company in liquidation.

A complaint under Section 454(5)(A) of the Companies Act, 1956, was also filed wherein it was noticed that some of the respondents have already been declared proclaimed offenders in the case filed against the sister concern. Due to pendency of the petition, the dissolution of the Company is getting delayed.

Keeping in view the aforesaid facts, the proceedings in the petition are closed.

All the pending miscellaneous applications, if any, are also disposed of.
