Neelam Saini

...Petitioner

Versus

State of Haryana

....Respondent

CORAM : HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE ANIL KSHETARPAL

Present: Mr. Anshuman Dalal, Advocate, for the petitioner.

Ms. Mamta Singla Talwar, DAG, Haryana.

ANIL KSHETARPAL, J. (ORAL)

The hearing of the case is being held through video conferencing on the account of restricted functioning of the Courts.

The petitioner prays for bail pending trial in FIR No.106, dated 08.03.2019, under Sections 120-B, 406, 420, 467, 468 & 471 of the IPC registered at Police Station Baldev Nagar, District Ambala.

The present case was registered on the basis of information supplied by the petitioner. She alleges that a truck in the name of her husband has been got wrongly financed in order to swindle the money from the Bank. Subsequently, the prosecution found that the petitioner is also involved in the aforesaid case. The petitioner applied for pre-arrest bail in the High Court which was dismissed. In Special Leave Petition at the first stage, her arrest was stayed, however, subsequently the petition was dismissed. The petitioner is in custody, since 25.11.2021. On conclusion of investigation, the Police had already filed its Final Report under Section 173 of the Cr.P.C. The case is triable by the Magistrate. As per Ms. Mamta Singla Tanwar, DAG, Haryana, who has stated that she has no information about the petitioner's criminal past.

The conclusion of trial is likely to take a long time. Hence, the petitioner is directed to be released on a regular bail subject to furnishing of adequate surety to the satisfaction of the trial Court/Duty Magistrate.

Accordingly, the petition is allowed with the aforesaid directions.

All the pending miscellaneous applications, if any, are also disposed of.
