Mr.Lupil Gupta, Advocate for the respondents

ANIL KSHETARPAL, J (Oral)

The hearing of the case is being held through video conferencing on account of restricted functioning of the Courts.

Reply on behalf of the respondents has been filed in the Court today and the same is taken on record.

Case has been called twice. Learned counsel representing the petitioner did not come present to press the present petition. Learned counsel representing the respondents has pointed out that the Regular Second Appeal filed by the petitioner has been dismissed on 21.05.2019. He submits that through this revision petition, the petitioner challenges the correctness of the ex parte judgment. He submits that since the Regular Second Appeal filed by the petitioner has already been dismissed on merits, therefore, the present revision petition has been rendered infructuous.

The learned counsel representing the petitioner did not attend the hearing, hence, dismissed for the want of prosecution.

All the pending miscellaneous applications, if any, are also disposed of.
